

GOING OUT IN PARIS IN APRIL

CENDRILLON (OPERA)

Conducted by Carlo Rizzi, Jules Massenet's music magnifies Charles Perrault's tale. At the Opéra Bastille until April 28, from 15€, English and French surtitles.

NOTRE-DAME IN VR

Until July 17, you can discover the 850 years of cultural epopee of Notre-Dame de Paris at the Collège des Bernardins, during an exceptional exhibition in augmented reality! Free.

BeauxArts

DESIGN FOR ALL

At the Musée des Arts Décoratifs, "le design pour tous" (design for all), chic and cheap, is finally highlighted and gives us a new perspective on our furniture. Until May 15, free (-25 years)

ELECTIONS ? WHAT ELECTIONS ?

Why, with the presidential elections in full swing, are we talking on the news about everything but this deadline? Mathilde gives us some answers. in French (we apologize)

FIGHT FOR DIGNITY

Fight fo Dignity participates in the remission of women victims of violence by introducing them to fighting sports. The association gives them back their self-confidence and autonomy. in French (we apologize)

2022, LEGISLATIVE YEAR

Despite a presidential election with no surprises, the real issue of the year is, for Victor, the legislative vote in June. Hope never dies! in French (we apologize)

OUR LATEST ARTICLES

APRIL'S NEWS

CLIMATE MARCHES

The intensity of climate marches have increased since March: activists criticize presidential programs for not sufficiently incorporating IPCC recommendations

8 PSYCHOLOGISTS SESSIONS A YEAR REIMBURSED

Implementation of the reimbursement of 8 psychologist sessions per year: a measure qualified as insufficient but which marks a progress in the fight against mental health problems